Dear Year 11 and Upper Sixth Parents, Guardians and Carers,

As GCSE and A level courses draw towards completion next half-term, we turn our attention towards public examinations in the summer. Allowing pupils to experience a wide variety of effective revision techniques becomes increasingly worthwhile and, along with working with subject specialist teachers here at The Royal, it is also very helpful for pupils to engage with outside speakers who can help them reflect in a different way on what they have learnt and how to best prepare.

It is therefore a pleasure to be able to announce a Study Skills Session on Thursday 9 March for Year 11 and U6 pupils from 2.00-4.10pm with Mr Kim Wells from Caterham School.

He is also going to run a session for parents from 6.15-7.15pm in The Hub on Thursday 9 March, which will help you in supporting your daughters, sons or wards in the coming months.

Please see his biography below for further details.

"Kim Wells (MA Cantab, PGCE, ACC) has been Director of Learning & Teaching at a leading HMC co-educational school for 18 years, during which he has developed their nationally recognised Learning to Learn programme. Kim works as a trainer one day a week and has delivered courses on memory and revision to students, teachers and parents around the UK and Europe. His session will give you practical tips for helping your son / daughter to get the most out of revision time, and how to maintain resilience and focus in the build up to exams."

If you would like to attend, please complete the short online response form – CLICK HERE. Parking will be outside main reception and at the back of Kilmorey Hall. The session will not be recorded or live-streamed, but we will be able to send out a summary of material covered on the evening to everyone.

As always, please do let us know if there is anything we can help with and we look forward to welcoming you on Thursday 9 March in The Hub.

With kind regards,

Paul Norman
